House of Prayer by Tim Shull

"Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple complex. After looking around at everything, since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve." Mark 11:11. On Palm Sunday, Jesus walked into the temple area, looked around, and walked out. So we know what he did on Monday was no rash impulsive act.

First, coming from Bethany, He cursed a fig tree. (Mark 11:12-14 and Matthew 21:18-19) "Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you again." The fig tree withered away." Matthew 21:18-19. The fig tree represents the nation of Israel and the vision and purpose God had for it. (Hosea 9:10, Jeremiah 24:1-10, Joel 1:7, Luke 13:6-9). Jesus cursed the fig tree as an object lesson to His disciples. Israel was supposed to be a light and a blessing to the nations. "The Lord says, 'You will do more than restore the people of Israel to me. I will make you a light to the Gentiles, and you will bring my salvation to the ends of the earth." Isaiah 49:6. But they were fruitless.

"They came to Jerusalem, and He went into the temple complex and began to throw out those buying and selling in the temple. He overturned the money changers ' tables and the chairs of those selling doves, and would not permit anyone to carry goods through the temple complex. Then He began to teach them: "Is it not written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations? But you have made it a den of thieves!" Then the chief priests and the scribes heard it and started looking for a way to destroy Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished by His teaching." Mark 11:15-18.

It was Passover week. The Passover was the highlight of the Jewish calendar. People came from all regions and many countries to be present for the celebration. Upon arriving they were obligated to meet two requirements: 1. An animal sacrifice, usually a dove, 2. A temple tax in temple currency. But buyers and sellers were haggling and arguing and turning the temple courtyard into a crass commercial market. Jesus was outraged that the outer court of the temple, the only place at the temple for Gentiles, was filled with money changers and traders. Furthermore, worshipers were being cheated on the inspection of animals and subsequent sale of approved animals for sacrifice and on the exchange of their money to temple currency. The temple complex was supposed to draw people to inquire about the One True God. The Court of the Gentiles should have been an arena for evangelism. Instead it was a marketplace that displaced, abused and cheated would-be worshipers.

In Mark 11:17, Christ quoted Isaiah 56:7, "House of Prayer for all nations". God wants all people to come to Him. Christ also quoted Jeremiah 7:11, "Den of Thieves", a judgment over the first temple. "Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says the Lord."

Israel and its Temple had failed to be fruitful in bringing the nations to God. Using the fruitless fig tree as a parable, Jesus pronounced judgment upon them.

What about us? Have we ceased to be fruitful? Do we focus on our buildings or money or activities or traditions or security or comfort or survival instead of shining the marvelous light of Christ to our country and to the nations? Are we still Acts 1:8 witnesses, Great Commission followers of Christ bringing people to the Lord?
