Edgefield Baptist Association

Making History with His Story

Executive Committee Meeting

Tuesday, March 13 7:00 P.M.

What a wonderful opportunity this mission team had when they journeyed to the Boston area the first weekend in December. It was a first mission trip for some, a first time flying for others, a first time in the northeast for others. Their mission was to assist church planter, Chad Hartis, with a Fun Night at South Coast Church, and to serve along with them at Anchor Ministries for the homeless.

Some team members are sharing their experiences at their home churches, but if you have an opportunity you are invited to attend First Bethany on January 28th.

The team was led by John Alexander, EBA Moderator, and included Barbara Langley (Berea); Terri & Fisher Miller (Edgefield First); Wendy Gable, Kathy Hollingsworth, Holly & William Newman (First Bethany); Greg Gordy & Michelle Moorhead (Mountain Creek); Jesse Bryant (Red Hill); and Michael Howe (FBC, Ninety Six).

True Prosperity

I saw a statement the other day from a well-known TV preacher and prosperity author. He wrote, "When you do the right thing when it's hard, you're going to reap blessings, favor, increase, and not just eternal life, but abundant life here on this earth." My friend Pastor Jimmy Parris tweeted back at the celebrity, "I'd love to see a reference on this one." Indeed, there is no Biblical basis for prosperity theology. There is, on the other hand, a wealth of Bible teaching that our Heavenly Father knows us and loves us and has good plans for us that include hardship and difficulty. Paul wrote from prison, "You have been given not only the privilege of trusting in Christ but also the privilege of suffering for him. We are in this struggle together. You have seen my struggle in the past, and you know that I am still in the midst of it." Philippians 1:29-30.

As we abide in the love of Christ, we have joy that is full and complete, independent of our circumstances. Our joy, as well as love, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control, all grow on the vine of abiding in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. The blessings of the abundant life and the blessed hope of the life to come are found in the loving arms of our sure relationship with our Savior. Too many people are looking for what's in God's hand rather than seeking God's heart.

Of course, as we wish one another a Happy New Year, we would all desire for each other and for ourselves a life of prosperity, free from adversity, pain or problems. But that simply isn't the way it works for the people of God. Jesus said, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In this world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." John 16:33. He said that we should expect persecution from the world as we stand for Him, and that He will be with us and never leave us nor forsake us.

Paul writes in Romans 5:3-4, "We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation." James 1:2-4 tells us about God's process for growing us: "Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything." Between the promise and the payoff is the process. We all want to avoid pain, but we must be careful to trust God and not short-circuit the process. The process is often painful, but it helps to remember that God is in control and He has a purpose in our pain. Pain and problems drive us to pray, and fervent prayer helps us know God's heart when we can't see His hand. And this is how He equips us for ministry: "God comforts us every time we have trouble, so when others have trouble, we can comfort them with the same comfort God gives us" 2 Corinthians 1:4. In addition, as we reflect the light of Christ to people around us, it is often in the darkness of hard times that our witness shines the brightest. Many of you have been and are today shining lights for Jesus in the midst of trouble. People notice. "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us." Romans 8:18.

While God doesn't send every hurt, in His sovereignty our loving Heavenly Father never wastes the hurt, pain, loss, problem or adversity that comes to us. He uses pain and problems to direct us, to inspect us, to correct us, to protect us, and to perfect us. "The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs – heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together."

Romans 8:16-17.

Humbly His,

Tim
